

WHAT OUR PARTICIPANTS SAY:

"As someone who has been in the field for a while, I was looking for a way to integrate new ideas into what I was already doing. The protective and promotive factors framework changed the way I approach my work. It makes sense and helps you see how things fit together."

"Every police officer working in a school/juvenile environment should have this training!"

"All topics covered over the 3-day training are critical to the successes of our youth. Amazing!!!"

"Alignment of research-based concepts and engaging presentations made this virtual experience completely worth my time!"

"As a trainer I needed a course and materials I could use in a variety of different ways... this course offers incredible flexibility and resources!"
